Prague, September 2015

Dear friends,

We are happy to invite you to Prague to attend the annual meeting of the Association of Friends of PTF, which will take place on November 20-22, 2015. The theme of our meeting will be “Is the Reformation to blame for Secularization?”

This theme has been chosen in regard to the anniversary of the death of the Bohemian reformer Jan Hus and the upcoming celebration of the Lutheran Reformation in 2017. In analyses about the legacy of the Reformation from several sides (Catholic theology, sociology, history) the argument is used that the secularization process of the 19th and 20th centuries is partly a consequence of the Reformation and its theologies about the church and about the individual.

During our meeting we would like to examine this hypothesis under the guidance of Prof. Klaus Fitschen, who teaches church history in Leipzig.

We have reserved accommodation in the university student dormitory (details including address of the dormitory will be sent to registered people directly). The accommodation costs, including breakfast, range between 350.00 and 400.00 CZK. The Association will contribute toward 50% of this cost.

We kindly ask you to inform us about your participation until November 9th, 2015 either electronically at or via postal mail at:

Spolek přátel ETF, P.O.BOX 529
Černá 9,
CZ-115 55 Praha 1

Please, use the enclosed registration form.

For more information on the activities of the Association (in English, German and Czech) see the website <http://spoleketf.org>. Around September 30 you will also find the program of the November meeting on our site.

We would also like to remind those of you who are members of our association not to forget to pay your membership fee. If not for these contributions, we would not be able to organize our annual conferences. In case you participate at this year's conference, you can pay your membership fee in cash in Prague.
